REFERENCE(S)	ECWA-19090 (Amex L, page 16) Recently while reviewing the CARETINA file, [ ] run across reference, a copy of which is forwarded under separate cover, and read with considerable interest the remarks which unmistakably refer to CARAVEL. A hasty check of biographic information in his dossier revealed that CARAVEL was called to the Police Institute (Kriminalistische Institut) in Berlin during early 1937 for an aptitude test, and in July of that year was enlisted as a candidate for the higher criminal law courses at the criminal police regional headquarters in Frankfurt/M. No details about his activities or associates were given, nor does the roster of references include CARETINA. The period of instruction at the Berlin police academy was only a few months and apparently the close friendship alleged by CARETINA was far less meaningful to CARAVEL. However, the recital surrounding CARAVEL's seeming rebuff of CARETINA in summer 1958 provokes much curiosity about CARAVEL's character and motives. Headquarters wonders if CARAVEL has ever mentioned this old contact to [ ] whose comments are awaited with interest. [ ]
